Hi I'm Madeline. I'm interested in fashion. I enjoy reading fashion magazines and going to clothes shops, but I can't afford to buy fashionable clothes. They're so expensive! I've got two or three special outfits that I wear when I go out, but most of the time I wear jeans and a T-shirt. My friends and I often borrow each other's clothes. That way we can all wear something new but without spending too much money.

According to the text - - - - .

- A) Madeline spends too much money for clothing.
- B) Madeline usually wears comfortable clothes.
- C) Fashionable outfits are not very expensive.
- D) Madeline has got a lot of special clothes.

Leyla

Last summer, I travelled to London for two weeks. I stayed in a bed and breakfast place. It was really fantastic.

The city is very big and I visited all the sights like Big Ben, The London Eye (big wheel) and Buckingham Palace. I wanted to see the Queen but I didn't see her, only her guards!

I liked everything in the city but my favourite thing was the museums, especially Madam Tussauds. There were lots of realistic figures of famous people there.

At the end of the two weeks, I was sad to return home. The holidays were fun and different from usual.

Edinburgh

A visit to Scotland often begins in Edinburgh, the capital city of Scotland. Edinburgh is an old city with many important and interesting buildings. After London, Edinburgh is the second city for visitors in Britain.

If you come to Edinburgh by train from the south, the first thing you see when you leave Waverley Station is Edinburgh Castle.

Edinburgh is a hilly city but it is a good city to visit on foot. After the castle, you can visit more of the Old Town. Go down the Royal Mile to Holyroodhouse - the Queen's home when she comes to Edinburgh. It is three hundred years old.

You can look at the shops on the Royal Mile or on Princes Street in the New Town. Some shops sell the famous Scottish silk scarfs. Near Princes Street is Charlotte Square, which is very beautiful. There is also the National Art Gallery of Scotland, with pictures from Scotland and from many other countries too.

In August, you can visit the Edinburgh Festival, the biggest arts festival in the world with hundreds of different things to do and see.
